WELCOME

JARED GUSSO
SFC CIVIL CONSTRUCTORS
2018 PRESIDENT, AGC OF
SD, HHU CHAPTER

Welcome to the 2019 AGC of South Dakota State Convention in Sioux Falls. On behalf of the Convention Planning Committee and the AGC Staff we look forward to your attendance and participation over the next 3 days. Over the last eight months the committee has been searching for speakers, topics, and entertainment for this event. This year's convention has something for everyone. From our Keynote Speakers, to the breakout sessions, to the new Flash Sessions, a multitude of topics are available for you. Along with the speakers, there are opportunities for networking, social events to attend, and a chance to congratulate all of the award winners. As 2018 closes and a busy year is wrapped up, take some time here at your convention to have some fun and enjoy it.

Thank you for supporting the AGC by your attendance at the 2019 state convention. The AGC staff and convention committee have worked diligently to provide an entertaining line up for this year's convention. I'm confident that this convention will provide numerous learning opportunities for your use in your business. The state AGC convention is a great place to mingle with your peers and get to know other people on a personal basis as well as the business relationships. The strength of the AGC is through the willingness of its members to devote their time to make the construction industry better for everyone. If you are not currently actively volunteering for AGC activities, I encourage you to do so. I'm confident that you will find the experience very rewarding. Please take the time to visit the vendor's booths. Their support is critical to making the state convention a success.

2018 PRESIDENT, SDLICA

Thank you for attending the 2019 State AGC Convention in Sioux Falls. Please help me in thanking the Convention Planning Committee and staff that have put in countless hours in arranging a great line up of informative and fun events for you to enjoy. I hope this convention challenges you to get more involved and to support our industry in facing the challenges we are experiencing. Our strong Safety Training, Workforce Development and Legislative efforts need your support to continue to be successful. I really enjoy the convention, seeing colleagues I haven't seen in a while, learning about our industries challenges and listening to great speakers. I hope you have the same experience.

PRE-CONVENTION SAFETY TRAINING

“GETTING TO THE NEXT LEVEL OF SAFETY PERFORMANCE. ARE YOU WILLING TO PAY THE PRICE?”

Bob McCall's career spans over 33 years in the Utility industry. Join him as he shares four proven and battle tested steps to improving your team's performance. Bob believes the power is not in safety rules, but in people who are willing to demonstrate passion, commitment, leadership and engagement from the entire team will create a winning culture of top performers. Bob will share how changing expectations for team culture, team members, getting rid of those who don't measure up and hiring winners will enable any organization to improve their performance thus raising the bar to the next level."

OPENING GENERAL SESSION:

“WELCOME”

Before being elected Mayor of Sioux Falls, SD, Paul served as the Founder and CEO of Click Rain, a 35-employee marketing technology agency. Under his leadership, the company received numerous awards for their tremendous growth and innovative culture. Prior to founding Click Rain, Paul worked in the marketing field in both healthcare and financial services. Mayor Ten Haken is an entrepreneur, dad, husband, and Sioux Falls' #1 fan.

RESILIENT LEADERSHIP: “PREPARE TODAY TO PREVAIL TOMORROW”

Drawing from 37 years of military experience, Gen. Honoré brings his bold, no-nonsense leadership approach to businesses and organizations to help them better identify and prepare for the challenges of the future. With an emphasis on the importance of innovation, risk assessment and social entrepreneurship, he provides valuable insight and strategies for the public and private sector to solve a broad array of issues—from jobs and energy to healthcare and technology. He also reveals leadership tactics that optimize efficiency and effectiveness of operations for all sectors and outlines the importance of developing the next generation of problem-solvers.

& SPEAKERS

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 2019

AFTERNOON BREAKOUTS:

DISTRACTED DRIVING IS NOT “WORTH IT”

We hear about distracted driving accidents almost every day, but driving distracted is no accident. Instead, it's a choice people make when they get behind the wheel. It's time to change our way of thinking. Worth it is a comprehensive educational and awareness program to remind drivers that life is worth it, driving distracted is not. UFG has developed a collection of resources ideal for use by business owners, insurance agents, educators or individuals— anyone interested in helping to turn the tide against distracted driving.

JIM HAWTHORNE
United Fire Group

3:30 - 4:30 PM

“INTERACTING WITH THE MEDIA”

This session provides the necessary background and preparation for participants to be trained in the use and deployment of the Step Back and the positive incentive system processes. This risk competency training is complemented by a field work exercise that utilizes the skills that participants learn in the course. The field work exercise will further deepen their understanding of risk competency and help to solidify the knowledge into the appropriate risk management behaviors. Participants will be utilizing a risk ‘lens’ to disrupt their practices resulting in the development and operationalization of agile risk competency frameworks for all industry verticals.

RHONDA KEMMIS
Elite Leadership

3:30 PM - 4:30 PM

NEW THIS YEAR ...

Don't miss the “Flash Session” presentations Taking place on Thursday Afternoon from 2:15-4:45pm! These 15-minute informative sessions will take place in Exhibit Hall I. See the line-up of topics and presenters on page 15!

THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2019

SHAWN VAN DYKE

Construction Business Coach

8:00 AM - 9:00 AM

BREAKFAST KEYNOTE

"HUNTING FOR UNICORNS: HOW TO SOLVE THE SKILLS GAP FOR YOUR CONSTRUCTION BUSINESS"

The skills gap has been growing for decades because younger generations have not been encouraged to pursue a career in the trades. Hiring for skill is like hunting for unicorns - searching for mythical creatures with magical powers. Construction companies must shift from "hiring for skill" to "recruiting for talent" in order to remain relevant in the coming years. Millennials make up the largest portion of the workforce today, and construction companies that will succeed in the future will need to develop recruiting, hiring, and training practices that show these millennials a path and create opportunities along the way. In this keynote address Shawn will discuss how successful construction companies in the next decade can attract and develop their own skilled labor force and what that means for the companies that don't.

KARI GUSO

Author

9:15 AM - 10:00 AM

SPOUSE/GUEST BREAKOUT

"A KINGDOM FAR AWAY"

Kari Gusso swallowed the hard truth that no one could ease her daughter's suffering. No one can help young Lauren conquer her anxiety and depression. No one can fix her tantrums. No one - except Gusso and her husband Jared - can be there to help Lauren face a daily emotional rollercoaster. Lauren was diagnosed with autism, in addition to the anxiety, depression and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. Attend this session and find out more about why Kari chose to tell her story to the whole world.

CPT. JOHN BROERS

SD Highway Patrol

11:15 AM - 12:15 PM

MID-MORNING BREAKOUT

"MOTOR CARRIER REGULATORY UPDATE & INFORMATION"

Attend this informative session and learn more about the new regulations covering transportation under the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration, as well as pertinent legislative updates. Attendees will be able to ask questions and get answers on any state and federal laws governing transportation issues.

& SPEAKERS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 2019

AFTERNOON BREAKOUT

“THE CULTURE OF SAFETY” & “RISK ACCEPTANCE”

In safety, we spend a lot of time on hazard recognition, but is that what is creating your organization's accidents? Your company has a Culture of Safety; it just may not be the one that your company wants. Learn what steps need to be taken by leadership and mid-level supervisors to build a Culture of safety & health within your organization. Learn how your front line employees and management team can work together to drive a long term sustainable Culture of Safety. Learn how this culture can drive your company's employee longevity and draw in the right kind of new employees. Let's stop scaring people safe and create relationships in safety! USA and Blue Collar Radio. Steve speaks to more than 250,000 people a year and influences the lives of millions through his keynote speeches, books, CDs and DVDs.

LEADERSHIP LUNCH

“NATIONAL OUTLOOK, LOCAL OUTREACH”

AGC of America President Eddie Stewart will outline steps the association is taking to address a range of key issues for members and the construction industry. In particular, he will outline steps the association is taking to advocate for more infrastructure funding, push for regulatory reform and address workforce shortages. In addition, he will outline ways members can get more involved in AGC of America activities.

“THE ART OF OBSERVATIONAL ENHANCEMENT: PREPARING FOR AN ACTIVE SHOOTER SCENARIO & DEFUSING WORKPLACE VIOLENCE BEFORE IT ESCALATES”

The Art of Observational Enhancement will reinforce our ability to maintain keen situational awareness of the little details that could potentially become big problems. The Art of Observational Awareness will equip attendees with essential skills to respond to an active shooter scenario as well as how to de-escalate a possible violent altercation in the workplace.
